ESTABLISHED 1800.

Alexandria Gazette for 1882

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER PUBLISHED IN NORTHERN VIRGINIA-ONE OF THE BEST ADVERTISING ME-

DIUMSIN THE STATE.

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE and VIR. GINIA ADVESTISEE, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in the State, and the only daily published in Northern Virginia.

Already read by three generations, it proposes to continue its useful life, and now enters upon another (the eights-third) volume, determined to be the newspaper of the err in Virginia.

The Gazatte will put forth its utmost endeavor to continue a model newspaper, and its success during this entire contury in catering to the wants and meeting the wishes of the people, guarantees that with this paper promise means performance.

With the coming year all the improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the espacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of man and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but few exceptions, the only paper between Biltimore and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountsies of the world's news.

Its contiguity to Washington gives the Caz tte an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government. The proceedings of Congress will be regularly reported in succiset form for its columns, but all matters of capecial interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all titls of local interest will be

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the No. 265

To meet all the demands upon it, the Gazette will be made a WASHINGTON and RICH-MOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEX. ANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of past years has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

As the interests of the people mainly centre at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treatured at many thousand hearthstones of Virginiz.

The city of Alexandria will flad as usual ita daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assidulously

The past of the Cazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experionce of journalism.

In the progress of the growth and outerprises of our city a Telephone Excharge has been established greatly to the benefit of the business community and with which the Gazatte was early connected thereby putting the office in immediate communication with all parts of the city and faciliting the collection of news, &c.

Espesial attention will be devoted to present ing, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia

Concisely and completely it will give the news of the world

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazatle will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such pains taking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they may depend upon the Gazille.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted

The continual favors of those who have once used the Gozette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns which experience has shown to afford gists at prices as low as the same quality can be greater returns for a small investment than any obtained elsewhere. greater returns for a small investment than aty other which can be made.

Alexandria County.

A large number, probably a large mejority. of the inhabitants of Alexandria county proper are and have been for a long time dissatisfied with their political condition. Severed as they are from the city of Alexandria, with so general feature of their polity in common, with sepaate organizations, and judiciary, with none of case. their public buildings within their own juriadiction; strictly speaking, with a very limited area and population, the entire county being much smaller in srea, papulation, or voters then many megisterial districts in larger coutties, the burdens of taxation have added to the ties, the burdens of taxation have added to the Liver Cure in all diseases of the kidneys, liver general discontent, and many discussions have or urisary organs. If any one who reads this been held, with a view of devising some means been held, with a view of derising some means of relief. Just what shape that relief will atsume is not yet clear, but it appears very likely to assume tangibility shortly.

The county of Alexandria was, up to Dicember 3, 1789, the date of the act of the General Assembly of Virginia ceding that portion of the retritory to the U.S. as a portion of the proposed permanent seat of government of the proposed permanent seat of government of the U.S. as a portion of Eastfax cannoty. Va. When proposed permanent seat of government of the U. S., a pertian of Fairfex county, Va. When absorbed in the District of Columbia it became Alexandria county in the District of Columbis; when retrooeded under the set of Congress of A desirab July 9, 1816, it did not go back to the jurisdiction from which it was originally severed-that is. Fairtax county -but became a separate political organization, as Alexandria county, in the State of Virginia.

The only question to which attention should

s now directed would appear to be, not where

Alexandria county oun go, but where does she belong. That the original dission of Alexacdria county to the U. S. as a part of the District of Columbia was legal, r gular and valid, has never been questioned. That her present County, it came at once under that clause of the Constitution of the United States, previding that Congress should exercise exclusive R. For particulars enquire of the subscriber, jurisdiction over the Dis rict of Columbia as dec5-tf P. B. CORBETT. exclusively under the jurisdiction of the Cosgress of the United States, and it is questionable how far the action of Congress in divesting itself of Alexandria County as it did by the act of July 9.h. 1846, and creating in the limits of the District of Columbia another delegated jurisdiction over a partion of the territory which the Constitution of the United Stated declared should be under the exclusive jurisdiction of Congress was legal and constitutional. It is a general pricciple of law that a delegated power cannot be re-delegated without express powers of substitution, and this Congress did not have in this case-even should it be asserted that the provisions regarding the formation of new states was applicable, the formalities required in such cases were not complied with, for the Legislature of the State of Virginia was not consulted, the change being based entirely upon the votes of the persons residing in the district to be affected by the charge. If then Congress had no authority to delegate its powers and arisdiction over Alexandria County, it must follow that such action being unconstitutional, must be void, and in fact Alexadria County is te-day as much a part of the District of Columbia as ever. That the Supreme Court of the United States had the case before it in the suit of Phillips vs. Payno does not eff.et the question. The court did not consider or decide that question, Oa the other hand, it expressly dodged the question and avoided any decision of the question of arisdiction, merely asserting that in that case Virginia, baving a defacto jurisdiction, was entitled to enforce the collection of its taxes, and that the question of the validity of the retrocession of July 9, 1864, could not be brought up in that collateral mode. It did not attempt to indicate wast its decision would be over the quetion fairly presented, nor did it intimate in what way that question could be reised. The decision of the Supreme Court in Phillips vs. Payne merely evaded the question, and left it open as if that case had never been brought before it. Whatever may be the ultimate outcome. I have long thought that if the question is ever fairly and equarely presented to the Supreme Court of the United States its decsion will be against the validity of retrocession and result in relegating Alexandria county to its position as a portion of the District of But if the retrecession of Alexandria county is conceded by easo:ion,or otherwise to be legal, Celambia where it properly belongs. by what sutbority was it over created an in-dependent county? When it was severed from Virginia and became a portion of the District of Columbia it was an integral portion of Fair-fax county. When it was returned to the State why was it not returned to the local jurisdiction from which it was severed? If it does not belong to the District of Columbia then it should have become a portion of Fairfax county, and the people are justified in an effort to get back to the parent organization. But we, of Fairfax, have no desire to obtain any doubtfally territory, which may embroil us at some future time in litigation. We would not of ject to having Alexandria county restored to its former position as a portion of Fairfax county if it can be done legitimately, but with the question of the validity of the retrocession of Ju'y 9, 1816, hanging over it, it would be preferable that that question shou'd be first disposed of, before any further effort is made to charge the present status of that coun'y. J. C. DEPUTRON.
